PROFILE

I am originally from Tennessee, but moved to Kentucky in 2018 to attend the University of Kentucky. I've had a deep passion for horses from a very young age, which has since transitioned into a passion for the global Thoroughbred industry. As a Godolphin Flying Start trainee, I aspire to attain a wide base of knowledge on the different aspects of Thoroughbred breeding and racing on an international level to apply to a leadership role within the industry.
